Madam/Sir,

In inviting a reference to the subject cited above, I am directed to say that the revised MLALADS Guidelines, 2025-26 has a provision of 0.5% of total authorization of MLALADS fund to be utilised for Administrative Expenditure, out of which 0.1 % shall be with State Nodal Authority (SNA), 0.1% with District Authority and 0.3% with Executing Agencies for organizing review meeting, physical monitoring, third party audit/social audit/evaluation and purchase of stationery, office furniture, equipment and for IEC activity etc. The detailed scope of expenditure is enclosed.

Hence, in invoking stipulation from Para- 4.3. of Chapter-4, Pro-rata and Contingency Charges of MLALADs Guidelines, a "Saving Account" has been opened in the State bank of India, in favour of ' State Nodal Authority' for deposition of allotment w.r.t. Administrative Expenditure.

Further, the drawing limit of Administrative Expenditure comes under the General Component of MLALAD Fund and funds under General Component of MLALADS have been sanctioned without deduction of allotment w.r.t. Administrative Expenditure under MLALADS.
